Some of the ittacks would be so severe that for days togeth er I would not retain anything on my stonize er I would not retain anything on any stonices, save a little dry toast and tea. For years I knew not what it was to pass five consecutive hours without intense pain. From the time I took the first dose of this medicine I ceased vomiting, gradually all soreness passed away, and flosh and strength returned, and ever since I have been able to cat any kind of food set upon the table. Six months have now passed without any symptons of the return of the disease. My case was considered by all, even by physicians, so marvelous, that for a time it was feared that it might be fictitious; but I am now so well convinced, that I have not been insrely relieved but permanently cured, that can I conscientiously recommend Coe's Dyspepsia Cure to all victims
